<sup>2</sup> Typical mortgage products are single contribution/premium. Hence, early settlement may generate cash value which may be payable upon surrender or maturity.

<sup>3</sup> Product benefits for all three (3) sub categories are similar. The differences are mainly on period of coverage (short term or long term) and expiry age (for whole life, common expiry age is 100).

<sup>4</sup> Terminal dividend is a related benefit payable one time only upon death, TPD, maturity or surrender.

<sup>5</sup> Reversionary bonus is a related benefit payable one time upon death, TPD, maturity or surrender.
